

BRIEFING

- All roads are open and normal road rules apply.
- All cyclists must wear race numbers, ride at their own risk, are expected to abide by normal road rules and ride in a safe manner.
- If any competitor doesn't finish the event for any reason, they need to notify the Race Manager at the finish line.
- If a cyclist becomes aware of another rider in distress (accident or whatever), they should look to assist and support where appropriate
- The race is held on public roads
 - Keep Left as practical and safe. stay in the shoulder as much as possible
 - Do Not Hold Up Traffic. A flashing red tail light fitted on the bike is recommended.
 - Avoid Crossing the Centre Line unless absolutely necessary.
- Cross roads, intersections and driveways will not be marshalled. Take care and be observant. Communicate if there are hazards.
- Both courses have an out and back configuration.
 - There is a single 180 degree turn at the far end of each course. The turn point is marked with a cone that is fitted with a sign for clarity
 - The turn point will be marshalled. Cyclists have the right of way and marshals will be stopping motorists if required.
 - Be alert in case a vehicle drives into the turn area.
- Wind can be a significant hazard on these courses, ride to the conditions if needed to maintain safety.
- Be generally aware of road works and other road hazards.
